The released encoder: a compact image-to-table transform

Five learned downsampling operations produce exactly 3 × 8 × 8 values—one JPEG table for each color component.

Training-only mirror path

3×8×8 tables → transposed convolutions + IGDN → 256×256 RGB reconstruction

The selected release sets this loss to zero and ships only the encoder; the mirror path remains available for research.

2,196,355
released parameters